

Speaking Your Language

Aims of the event

An opportunity for small business managers to get support to meet business development needs through staff training

The event will include information on:

- the business benefits of staff training from employers who've done it
- how to get a free training plan
- how to get training for staff who need to improve their English language
- what support you can get from your Sector Skills Council

When: Wednesday 26th April 2006. From 9.00am to 12.30 pm, followed by a free lunch

Where: The Resource Centre, 356 Holloway Road, N7 6PA.

Who should attend: small businesses who employ staff with English as a second language

What: The event is in three parts

1. 9.30-10.15 Short presentations from employers and support organisations on how to improve your business through staff training
2. 10.15-11.45 A workshop to discuss the benefits and practicalities of staff training with other employers from your sector
3. 12.15- 1.00 A networking opportunity for you to get free information and advice from other business managers and a range of employer support organisations

If you are unable to attend the whole event please do register and come to the parts you're able to attend.

